

Receiving Grace

MERCY is when God withholds from me what I deserve.

GRACE is when God gives me what I don't deserve.

The younger son of a wealthy family couldn't wait until his father died to receive his inheritance. He wanted to go out and experience the ways of the world. So he asked his father to give him his share of the estate. With a heavy heart his father complied and watched as his son made his way down the road away from home. When the son had wasted it all on riotous living and was wretched and homeless he decided to go home where his father was waiting with open arms. Luke 15:11-31

Living Grace

When you have received mercy and grace and understood their true value you can not withhold mercy and grace from another human being. For the mercy and grace you have received comes at the cost of Jesus' life. But to give mercy and grace to another is also costly. For you must crucify self daily if you would be really free!! You are free because you have given up all your rights trusting God to provide all you need.

When you are living the grace-filled life you will have the peace that only Jesus gives – not the kind of peace the world offers.
